Conditions of Sale.

1.—That the highest bidder be the buyer, and if any dispute should arise as to any lot during the sale, such lot shall at the option of the Auctioneer, be put up again, and no person shall retract his or her bidding.

2.—That no person shall advance less than 5 per cent on the former bidding, except at the option of the Auctioneer.

3.—That each buyer, immediately on the lot being sold, shall give his or her name and address, and shall pay (if required) a deposit of 25 per cent in part payment for the lot or lots sold, and the remainder in cash before the removal of any portion of such lots from the premises.

4.—Each lot shall be at the purchaser's risk from the time of its being sold, and be taken as sold, with all faults, defects, or errors of description (if any), and removed at the purchasers' expense on the day following the last day's sale.

5.—That each purchaser shall pay for all damage done to the property, or to any goods on the premises, by the removal of property sold or in any other way.

6.—That the Auctioneer shall have the option of declining to accept any bidding.

7.—That any lot purchased by a defaulter, shall (without notice to such defaulter) be re-sold or otherwise dealt with at the discretion of the seller; the deposit paid shall be forfeited, and all loss by a re-sale shall be made good by the defaulter at this sale, who shall not be entitled to any overplus, if realised.

8.—No lots will be delivered during the hours of sale but such as the Auctioneers can conveniently have removed, nor will any person be allowed to take away any lot until a Delivery Order has first been obtained from the Sale Clerk.
